Digital and green as the guiding principle

The EU aims to transform the economy and promote “sunrise industries” with €750 billion. Climate protection, digitalisation, research & development are the focus of the financial package.

Next steps

- January 2021 Agreement on the recovery plan reached in the trilogue negotiations of the EU institutions – European Commission, Council and Parliament – enters into force
- 30 April 2021 Deadline for submission of member states’ recovery and resilience plans on national projects, Commission’s assessment and Council’s approval required
- First half 2021 Expected disbursement of funds from the European recovery plan to member states (70% by 2022)
